

The GHD/EMPHNET team would like to congratulate Dr. Aamer Ikram on his new post as the Executive Director of the Pakistan National Institute of Health (NIH) and as the Director of the Pakistan Field Epidemiology and Laboratory Training Program (FELTP).

We wish him and the Pakistan FELTP further success and advancement.

Dr. Aamer Ikram graduated from Army Medical College in 1987. He did a Diploma in Pathology (1990), qualified MCPS (Clinical Pathology) in 1991, and a Fellowship (Clinical Microbiology) in 1998.

He also completed a Diploma in Occupational Health, Safety and Environment followed by a Diploma in Disaster Management.

He completed a wide range of courses from universities such as Harvard, Oxford, South Florida, Iowa, Chester, Bradford, and workshops from the UN, the WHO, the CDC, and the ABSA.

He completed his PhD in Molecular Biology from Baqai Medical University.

https://free.facebook.com/story.php?story_fbid=1588005074586571&id=642947332425688&rdc=1&rdi